FIRM RESUME

The Law Offices of Mallison & Martinez is a class action boutique law firm with offices in Lafayette, California. This firm was created by attorneys with extensive class action and complex litigation experience at: 1) Lerach Coughlin Stoia and Robbins (the largest class action firm in the world), 2) Milberg, Weiss, Bershad, Hynes, & Lerach (the second largest class action firm in the world), 3) Van Bourg Weinberg Roger and Rosenfeld (the largest union side labor law firm in the country), and 4) California Rural Legal Assistance (the largest federal legal services provider to farmworkers in the country). The firm is exclusively engaged in class action practice in the Securities, Consumer and Employment fields. We have three attorneys on staff: Stan Mallison, Hector Martinez, and Alegria De La Cruz and employs four part time investigators. Mallison & Martinez's specialty is in conducting in-depth legal and factual research to develop large complex class action cases and in litigating large class action cases with prominent co-counsel. The success of this business model is borne out by the list of some of our current cases which include:

1. Glenn Block v. Ebay, Inc., San Francisco Superior Court Case No. 105 CV 035930: This is a consumer class action case filed on behalf of several million ebay consumers who were impacted by Ebay's "bid against yourself policy.” (co-counseled with the law firm of Lerach Coughlin Stoia Geller Rudman & Robbins).

2. Lara v. GoldenGrain, Kern County Superior Court Case No. S-1500 CV 252445 SPC. This is a wage and hour class action filed on behalf of approximately 4000 migrant farmworkers who were not paid minimum wages by a group of Central Valley grape growers. (Class Action Complaint filed by Mallison & Martinez – now co-counsel with Weinberg Roger Rosenfeld).

3. Doe et al v. DM Camp & Sons et at., (USDC ED Cal) Case No. 1:05-cv-01417-FVS-SMS. This is a wage and hour class action filed on behalf of approximately 10,000 migrant farmworkers who were not paid minimum wages by a group of the largest grape growers in the Central Valley. (Co-counsel with Weinberg Roger Rosenfeld).

4. Cisneros v. Yahoo, San Francisco Superior Court Case No. CGC04433518. This is a consumer class action filed on behalf of the general public and millions of internet users who were damaged by Yahoo, Google and other search engines’ illegal advertising of internet gambling. (developed by Stan Mallison and now serving as co-counsel with Lerach Coughlin Stoia Geller Rudman and Robbins, and The Rothken Law Firm).

5. In re Titan Corporation Securities Litigation, (USDC SD Cal.) Case No. 04-CV-0676-LAB(NLS). This is Securities Class Action on behalf of tens of thousands of Titan Corporation investors. A $61.5 million settlement is current up for court approval. (Primary investigation and litigation conducted by Stan Mallison. Law Offices of Mallison & Martinez acted as the co-manager of confirmatory discovery)

6. Retailers National Bank v. Harding, US District Court, ND Cal Case No. 03-CV-04190. This is an action on behalf of the general public to enjoin these companies involvement with illegal internet gambling. (Co-counsel with the Rothken Law Firm).

7. Jimenez/Skeeter v. Rhodia (consolidated), US District Court, NJ Case No 05-3016/3053-JLL. This is a Class Action Erisa case originally filed by the Law Offices of Mallison & Martinez which was consolidated and now co-counselled with the law firm of Robbins, Umeda & Fink)

Mr. Mallison received his Bachelor of Art degrees in Philosophy and Political Science from the California Polytechnic University at Pomona, California in 1990, graduating at the top of both departments. He earned his Masters in Economics from the University of California at Riverside, in 1993. Mr. Mallison then earned his law degree with honors from Stanford University in 1996 graduating with honors. Between 1996- and 1998, Mr. Mallison worked for the law firm of Van Bourg, Weinberg Roger and Rosenfeld, the largest union-side labor law firm in the country under the direct supervision of a named partner. From 1998 to 2005 Mr. Mallison worked for Milberg Weiss and then Lerach Coughlin Stoia and Robbins. These two firms represent the largest and second largest class action firms in the country. Mr. Mallison's work at these firms includes work on some of the largest most complex cases ever litigated including in re Enron Securities Litigation (settlements currently totaling over $7 billion), Mariana Island Garment workers cases (a $20 million settlement on behalf of 20,000 migrant workers), a Federal Court challenge to the sufficiency of Federal Department of Transportation's NAFTA Truck safety regulations, a Federal Court challenge to President Bush's Executive Order re: Project Labor Agreements, In re 3Com securities (settlement of $259 million), In re Pemstar Securities (settlement of $12 million), Cisneros v. Yahoo (representing a purported class of million of consumers), Retailers National Bank v. Harding (representing millions of credit card holders), Block v. Ebay (representing millions of defrauded Ebay users), and dozens of other cases. As a result of Mr. Mallison's expertise in economics, Mr. Mallison served as in house economics expert at Milberg Weiss and Lerach Coughlin and continues in this role at Mallison & Martinez.

Mr. Martinez received his Political Science Bachelor of Art degree in 1993 from the University of California, at Davis. Mr. Martinez grew up in a social conscious farmworker community and, as a result, has motivated Mr. Martinez to work for the benefit of low-wage workers. Mr. Martinez has conduct extensive research regarding the agricultural industry while at the California Institute for Rural Studies during the mid-nineties. Mr. Martinez then earned his law degree from the Golden Gate University School of Law in 1998. During his law studies, we worked as a law clerk with Van Bourg, Weinberg, Roger and Rosenfeld, the largest union-side labor law firm in the country, working under the direct supervision of named partner David Rosenfeld. From 1999 to 2004, Mr. Martinez worked at California Rural Legal Assistance, Inc. ("CRLA"), the largest non-profit law firm dedicated to farmworker issues in the country. His work at CLRA included private attorney general actions under California's Unfair Business Practice statute, Business & Professions Code Section 17200, on behalf of thousands of agricultural employees and the general public. During his time with CRLA, Mr. Martinez was nominated for and received a fellowship with the California Wellness Foundation Violence Prevention Initiative for his work with farmworker youth.

In 2004, Mr. Martinez worked with the class action firm Carter & Garay where he initiated litigated wage and hour California class actions against DHL, Airborne Express, Dominos Pizza, El Torito and Alcapulco Restaurants, among many others. On June 1, 2005, Mr. Martinez joined Stan Mallison to form the law firm of Mallison & Martinez where Mr. Martinez is currently litigating several farmer worker related wage and hour class actions, consumer class actions such as Palza v. Palm, Inc., and an ERISA class action.
